

What affine transformations would you need to use in an iterated function system to create the following fractals?

You can check your work with the Sage worksheet.